Learning diary

At the end of every Thursday session, we will spend about 15 minutes writing a reflection on what each of us learned (students and teachers). Just write down what comes to mind.

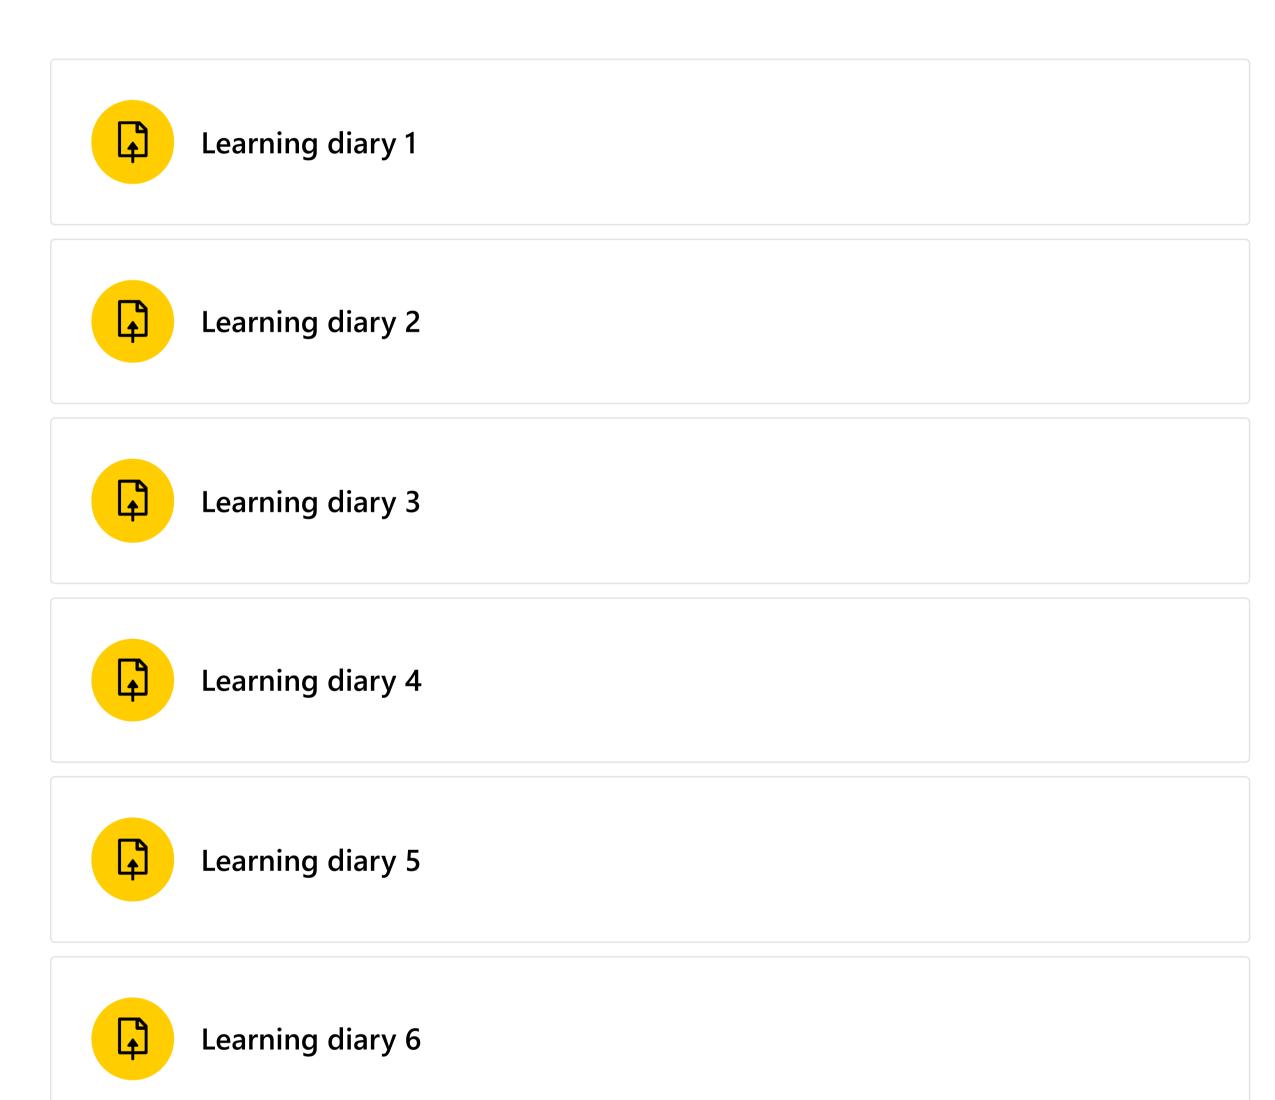

When absent:

- Read the material of the week.
- Spend a good amount of time to reflect on the topic of the session.
- Write down what you have learned. What was difficult?

The typical length of a reflection would be 2 paragraphs, which is about half a page of text.

Grading:

- 1 point for each week.
- There's no correct answer, but an honest effort is sufficient.
